

Southeast Kentucky Economic Development

Shabby Sheek Brings Unique, Customized Kids' Clothing to Somerset

Not many small towns can boast of having a shop that combines the sale of designer girls' clothing, custom embroidery and appliqué designs all under one roof. Somerset couldn't...until recently. Mike and Angie Truett took a year to school themselves in the craft and the business before opening Shabby Sheek in the Tradewinds Shopping Center this fall. SKED helped the Truetts apply for an SBA Micro Loan to fund their startup needs.

Shabby Sheek co-owner and manager Angie Truett organizes the clothing on the racks at the store in Somerset. For more information about Shabby Sheek, check them out on Facebook or call (606) 679-1859.

"It's always been a dream of mine to own my own business. We knew what we wanted to do, we just needed someone to believe in us and our dream and help us finance it. SKED helped us purchase a second embroidery machine to meet our current customer demand. We also plan to take advantage of their small business technical assistance to help keep our dream alive."

Angie Truett
Co-owner, Manager
Shabby Sheek

Partners: SBA Micro Loan Program

Total Project: $17,000

Jobs Created: One full-time job

Contact SKED to learn how we can assist you grow and expand your business, obtain low cost financing or receive free professional site selection services

Visit us at: www.southeastkentucky.com or call (606) 677-6100.